The Horizon Europe program will be followed by the 10th Framework Programme, which name is not yet determined. Currently, the guidelines for this programme are being developed, heavily influenced by the positions of member states, associations and stakeholders, including Jožef Stefan Institute. At this event, we will present the process of forming the 10th Framework Program, the positions formed and the open topics. Additionally, we will also present the JSI's positions on the 10th Framework Program.
