

Jožef Stefan Institute, Ljubljana, Slovenia

Subject: Recommendations for visitors of Jožef Stefan Institute

Date: 16 May 2011

To whom it may concern.

We are pleased that you have decided to visit Jožef Stefan Institute (JSI). Researchers at JSI carry out visits for free, at their regular work, therefore you are kindly asked to arrive to JSI meeting point at the appointed hour (or 5 minutes earlier). In case of arriving late please call:

- Tanja Zdolšek, +386 1 477 3243 or
- Kristina Žagar, +386 31 605 374.

Ahead of your visit please also send us a mobile phone number of a contact person responsible for your group visit to JSI in order to avoid any unnecessary misunderstandings and delays.

Jožef Stefan Institute

For participants of School of experimental chemistry

Dear teachers and companions of children,

When visiting School of experimental chemistry, carried out by Mr. Tomaž Ogrin, we would like to inform you that ice cream produced at this School is enjoyed with pleasure by the JSI staff, knowing however that JSI is not registered for production of ice cream. Such institute made ice cream JSI is enjoyed on your own risk and JSI is not responsible for any inconvenience as a result of eating it.